On the Road to Success.

That young man is wise who makes a plan, organizes his ambition, and makes each day contribute something toward its fulfillment. Success often seems delayed, but it is simply on its way for those who are getting ready for it. Over the desk of the boy or girl struggling with hard lessons that may seem at the present quite useless, let it be written in letters of gold: "I will study and get ready, and may be my chance will come."

Origin of "Algernon"

The name Algernon was originally "Als Gernon" and was first applied to one of the crusading Percys. His name was William, but his fellow knights called him William als Gernon or Gernon, meaning William with the Whiskers, or just Whiskers for short. As Algernon the name has persisted in the family to the present time, and the tenth duke of Northumberland, who died recently, was Algernon Percy.

The Lute.

The lute has vanished. It was one of the oldest of instruments, and had a beautiful vibrant tone somewhat like that of the harp. But its size and complexity were against it. It had a long fall, and many strings, and while its size increased its power and range, it also increased its weight and made it cumbersome. The minstrel of today plays on the mandolin, the guitar or the banjo—and the lute is forgotten.

Washington Flag Etiquette.

The United States flag always is hoisted over the senate or house of representatives when in session. The flag floats from the flagstaff of the White House while the president is in Washington, and its absence indicates the absence of the president from the capital. It is displayed over the department buildings in Washington from 9 o'clock a. m. to 4:00 p. m. every week day.

To Calculate Interest.

A rule often recommended for calculating interest for short periods is as follows: To find the interest of any given sum for any number of days, multiply the principal by the number of days and divide as follows: At 5 per cent, by 72; at 6 per cent, by 60; at 7 per cent, by 52; at 8 per cent, by 45; and at 9 per cent, by 40.

MISS BOOTH, IN RAGS, AIDED LONDON POOR

Salvation Army Commander. Disguised, Roamed Through Slums to Study Intimate Problems of East End Unfortunates.

Miss Evangeline Booth, daughter of the late General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, has given her life to the service of the poor and the unfortunate. Few persons, if any, know she went about in the East End of London disguised in rags that she might help the unfortunate. When her father stood erect amid a storm of abuse and even physical violence she stood beside him.

Evangeline Booth, Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States.

She knows how the poor suffer because she has suffered with them. She knows there still remains in the wreck of a disolute man a spark of manhood that will kindle a reborn flame, because she has fanned many flicking sparks into hot fires.

She now heads the Salvation Army in the United States at the great moment of its career. The old time slums and doubts have been banished. During the week of May 1920 the Salvation Army will appeal to the people of the United States for sixteen million dollars to carry out its after-war program. Contributions to the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign. Remember, to the Salvation Army "A Man May Be Down, but He's Never Out."

WILSON ENDORSES SALVATION ARMY.

President Wilson, burdened as he is, found time to cable his endorsement of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign, which will be conducted during the week of May 19-26. The cablegram:

Commander Miss E. Booth, Personal, Salvation Army, 120 West Fourteenth street, New York:

I am very much interested to know that the Salvation Army is about to enter into a campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that the Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend it as to congratulate it. Cordially and sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON.

"OUT OF LOVE" CLUB UNIQUE ORGANIZATION

Members Are Girls Rescued by Salvation Army.

The "Out of Love" Club is one of the important club organizations maintained by the Salvation Army in this country. In every large city where there is a Salvation Army corps girls who have been helped back into the normal pace of a workaday world are proud of the membership in this club. Disappointed, loveless girls who do not feel kindness shown them in their hour of greatest need give out of love to help other girls receive the same friendship. In a simple, quiet way, this unique idea has been maintained for over 20 years.

In every large city in the country there are girls who have needed the ministrations of the Salvation Army. After they have been helped and sent on their way again they become life members of this club if they so desire. Only girls are admitted who have given a good account of themselves for at least one month in the positions found for them by the Salvation Army after their release from a hospital or home. These girls pledge themselves to keep alive the spirit of friendliness and home which the Salvation Army has spread among them. The girls are expected to dress in a plain, simple way, and avoid in any sense of the word gaudy or flashy clothing.

Gossiping or tale bearing is frowned. If members of the club transgress this rule they are liable to suspension for a month or longer. The "Out of Love Club" is one of the many activities that will benefit by the success of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign for $16,000,000 May 19-26.

She Followed the Line We Sent Over the Rhine

The familiar figure in blue uniform and poke bonnet is back home to serve after four years in khaki with the boys "Over There." Salvation Army Isales served old fashioned American doughnuts in the front line trenches, and now that the war is over they will be found again in the slums and dark places of our great cities, ready to give a helping hand to men, women and children who are on the down grade. The Salvation Army Home Service Campaign for $16,000,000 closes May 19. In last one week.

Appropriate Look.

Robert had lost his little pet dog and felt bad about it. His father told him poor little Fido must be dead or he would return home. His mother sent him on an errand, when he met a woman friend of his mother's who asked him if he was ill, as he had little to say. "Oh, no," he said, "but my little dog is dead and I am wearing a black look."

Why Huskies Go Blind.

Many dogs that are driven in dog harnesses go blind. Particles of ice, exceedingly hard and fine, fall from the brush of the dog that is traveling ahead, and, striking the eye, scratch it, and in time cause partial or total blindness. The more ferocious dogs of the pack fight their way to the front of the teams, and are usually saved from this trouble.

The Old-Fashioned Folio.

The advantage of the old-fashioned folio was that it was safe from burrowers. —Emerson.

Daily Thought.

Man's one world and both another to attend him. —Herbert.

Bronzing Small Articles.
Small articles may be gilded by immersing them in the following solution, which must be used at nearly boiling heat: Canstic potash, 180 parts; carbonate of potash 20 parts; cyanide of potassium, 6 parts; water, 1000 parts. Rather more than one and one-half parts cyanide of gold should be dissolved in the water when the other substances are to be added, and the whole boiled together. This mixture is often employed by dealers in cheap jewelry.

Their Surprising Way.
"I was never more disappointed in anybody in my life than I was in my cousin up to Kay See," admitted Gabe Gosnell of Grudge, who was just back from a visit to the Big Burg. "Why, with everything on earth going on and anything you could think of liable to happen at any moment, I'll be switched if they don't poke off to bed at between nine and ten o'clock every night of the world!" —Kansas City Star.

Test of Woolens.
One test is to cut off a bit of the selvage and touch a match to it. If it shrivels up, but does not burn, it is wool, but if the fabric burns with a flame it is cotton. Another way is to put a bit of the cloth in a test tube or other glass receptacle with a solution of caustic soda. The soda will eat up the wool, leaving that which is not wool.

Failure.
When a man lacks principle he naturally fails from lack of interest.

Distinctive!

If we say that our clothes are distinctive, we say the same thing that thousands of other clothiers have said. It is a word that is much overwrought and in most cases means nothing.

But we mean a lot when we say that Kuppenheimer Clothes are "distinctive." We mean that they have elements of style, definite refinements of tailoring and precise fabric qualities that distinguish them from other clothes—characteristics that set the precedence for clothing value.

Kuppenheimer Clothes have those distinctive qualities of fine wear that impart their distinction to you. They do not assert themselves blatantly but draw attention to the individual rather than to the attire.

John M. Burkheiser
